

Multi Function Operator Consoles

The Rugged Multifunction Console family of AYESAS provides a platform to the System Integrators to run the software that performs command control functions, operator-system control functions, HMI functions and emergency status control functions.

In accordance with the requirements, consoles can be equipped with workstation, monitors, set of warning lamps, programmable display keyboard, radar and TV video processing unit, keyboard, trackball, joystick, protected push-button set , airflow system, condensation protection system, power distribution system, video switching & distribution subsystem and console interior data communication network.

Consoles are equipped with Consol Cabinet Control System (CCCS) as standard.

Standards

- MIL-STD-810G
- MIL-STD-461F

Highlights

- Air Cooled
- Surface ships Applications
- Submarine Applications
- Land Based Applications